Weather Indications Are for Stormy Day, Which May Prevent a Record Crowd; Becket Is Dar mouth-Penn. Columbia-Sure to Work at Quarter for One Period

Special Dispatch to The Tribune

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 11.—Charley O'Hearn has been definitely picked as Yale's field general against Princeton to-morrow. The election was made this afternoon by Head Coach Tad Jones upon learning the minor injuries received by George Becket were still somewhat acute, while the general physical condition of O'Hearn has greatly improved this week.

to remain in the bout the entire four periods. Both quarterbacks are slightly out of condition. Russell Murphy may get a chance for a part of the match.

Murphy may get a chance for a part of the match.

No other eleventh hour changes were made by Jones at the final practice session of the team. He has retained Gus Sturm at right end, dislodging Benny Deaver, and has decided to open the game with Ralph Jordan at right halfback. Tony Hullman, the hurder and freshman end last year, will get the left end assignment in the absence, through injury, of Ted Blair.

This afternoon the players ran through signals and practiced distance kicking and field goals an hour. With the resident coaching staff were the following former players. Former Head Coaches Paul Veeder, Foster Rockwell, and Jack Owsley; Major Louis E. Stoddard, of the graduate advisory committee; Phil Smith, Pie Way, Harold Metcalf, Ken Hamil, Kay Church. Chet Laroche, Arthur Vorys, Dick Baker, "Dutch" Lavine, Froggy French, Jack Field and Otis Guernsey, whose brother will play guard to-morrow.

The Princeton eleven arrived at the Bowl at 3 o'clock, meeting the Eli players as they were leaving the Eliplayers as they were leaving the inclosure. The Tigers formed two elevens and held secret practice for an hour. Don Lourie and Ken Smith practicing punting and dropkicking. "Big Bill." Edwards, Frank Bergin, and Mike Callahan, last year's Tiger captain, accompanied Head Coach Bill Roper and his resident staff. Prince.

Yale Holds Big Lead In Princeton Series

PREVIOUS to 1883 Princeton and Yale met in eight football games, each team winning twice and the remaining four games, being tied. Since the modern method of scoring was adopted in 1883 the two universities have clashed on the gridiron thirty-five times. Yale has won twenty-three of these games, Princeton ten, and three games have been tied. The scores follow:

But for a slam-bang, knockdown, riotous, rattling combat none this afternoon will excel the grapple between the Navy and Penn State, which will be held at Franklin Field, Philadelphia.

Game of Prime 'mportance This tussle is of prime importance. This tussle is of prime importance. Neither the Navy nor Penn State has been beaten, and each has encountered the best in the East. The Penn State warriors have been cantering through one of the toughest schedules that any modern football machine ever had; a list that included, besides Lebanon Valley and Gettysburg. North Carolina State, Lehigh, Harvard and Georgia Tech and which winds up with the Navy. Pittsburgh and Washington University, at Seattle.

That is what you call a regular football schedule. And yet in spite of its severity and its strenuousness, State to date has had only one close call, that with Harvard. 16-Year Lapse Notre Dame Eleven

Wisconsin Renews Relations With Michigan; Notre Dame's 3d Game in Week

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—Three undefeated elevens will renew their drive for the Western Conference gridiron championship to-morrow with the possibility that one of the trio will be eliminated as a contender.

Wisconsin, with a record of five straight victories, will clash with Michigan at Madison for the first time since 1905, in a contest that promises to overshadow all others in the mid-West. These traditional rivals have been priming for their clash for two weeks, and Wisconsin, with eleven experienced players in the field, appears to have a slight advantage.

While the Wolverines and Badgers are performing at the Camp Randall Stadium, six other "Big Ten" teams will be in action. Chicago will invade Urbana for the annual homecomingday battle with Illinois, while the undefeated lows eleven will attempt to strengthen its claim to the 1921 title by engaging Indiana at lowa City.

Iowa Favored to Win Indiana to date has engaged in only one conference game and on past performances Iowa is expected to score an easy triumph. In the fourth conference battle on to-morrow's schedule. Ohio State, conqueror of Michigan and Chicago, will tackle Perdue at Columbus

Considering past performances, Chicago is figured to rout the Ilhni and Ohio is expected to have no trouble in running over Purdue. Observers, while giving Wisconsin the edge, expect a battle royal from the Wolverines that ma result in an upset. The Badgers already have crushed Illinois, Northwestern and Minnesota, while Michigan has triumphed over Illinois and lost to Ohio.

Drops Army Contest

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Nov. 11.-The not play the Army eleven of West Point in 1922. Announcement to this effect was made to-day upon the team's arrival home from the East, where the Army and Rutgers both bowed to Notre Dame.

It was said Notre Dame will make an Eastern trip next season, but would oppose some other team. No reason was g ven for removing the Army from the schedule. Although Coach Rockne made no announcement, it was reported his eleven would try for a game with either Harvard or Yale in 1922. From the same source it also was said Penn State or Pittsburgh will be brought to South Bend for a game next year.

Harrison Scores Only Touchdown After Penalty Imposed on Losers

Brooklyn Prep's smashing backfield hree quarters in their annual game at Ebbets Field yesterday, but in the last period, with less than two minutes to play. Ed Harrison was pushed over the game. By its 6 to 0 victory the Prep ing contenders for the city champion ship. The eleven has not been scored field repeatedly during the first half, being stopped once on the 10-yard line. In the last quarter, with the ball in midfield and r scoreless tie imminent, the Prep team executed a forward pass, Mattimore to Bowen, for a gain of 28 yards, placing the ball on its opponents' 25-yard line.

The Brooklyn team swept through Flushing's line and marched down the field repeatedly during the first half,

Coach Cates of Flushing hereupon rushed in Childs to substitute for Quarterback Morrison. The substitute made the mistake of communicating with his team and Referee Thearer promptly penalized Flushing 15 yards, which gave Brooklyn the ball within ten yards of the goal line. Harrison went over the line on three plunges off left guard. Mattimore failed to kick goal.
